43rd Annual FACTE Conference (continued)

Keynote Speaker: Andy Masters

Andy Master will kick-off the 43rd Annual FACTE Conference & Trade Show by serving as our keynote speaker. Andy is a favorite among conference planners and is a member of the National Speaker Association. He earned four degrees including achieving "Distinguished Graduate" honors at Webster University while earning an M.A. in Human Resources Development, and an M.A. in Marketing. His undergraduate degrees included a B.A. in Communications and a B.A. in Political Science at the University of Missouri St. Louis. Andy has written 4 books, the most recent being "77 Reasons Why Sales & Service Are Just Like Dating & Relationships" to be released next month. This book has reviewed as the "funniest book on sales ever written" and includes life-learning lessons for success in both business and life. How to Engage and Inspire Today's Student will be the topic of his presentation.

Yes, we know you care, that's why we're here!

During these economically challenging times, we understand that education is challenged more than ever. We must all continue to support each other and take advantage of networking opportunities like FATIE and FACTE. Your FATIE officers pictured below include left to right: President Tom Hession, Secretary Kristey Richardson, Treasurer Brian Youngblood and Vice President Chip Bashinski.

FATIE needs your input for its newsletter and website. Please email FATIE Newsletter Editor Brian Youngblood brian.youngblood@browardschools.com with your news including, but not limited to, promotions, retirements, grant announcements, best practices, new technology, etc.

FATIE can help you network for increased effectiveness with input from its members.

FATIE needs your leadership!

The position of FATIE Secretary is being vacated by Kristey Richardson and a volunteer is needed to serve for the next school year. Call FATIE President Tom Hession if interested.
